Driver Cleared In Death of 7-year-old Lad

An inquest into the death of 7-year-old Edward Hughes, who killed by an auto near his home on Pacific Coast highway August 30, absolved the driver of the automobile of any blame in the lad's death, it was reported last week.

Henry G. Andrews of 15052 Vose street, Van Nuys, driver of the car which struck the Hughes boy, was cleared when the inquest showed that "the accident was not due to negligence" on the part of Andrews. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hughes of Seaside Heights, little Edward was struck down while crossing Pacific Coast highway last week on his way to the beach.

Funeral services were held at Gamby's Mortuary Chapel in Lomita September 2. Burial at Green Hills Memorial Park followed the final services.
